DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claims 1, 3, 5, and 6 are objected to because of the following informalities:

"plate-Ink" should be changed to -- plate-link --. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 2 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The method claims do not require any physical transformation and the invention as claimed does not produce a useful, concrete, and tangible result.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 5-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Turner (6,406,396).

With reference to fig. 4, Turner discloses a plate (330) for a plate-link chain for use in a CVT comprising: spaces longitudinal and vertical legs, and an opening for receiving pairs of rocker members (315). The formulas claimed are understood to describe the bending moment of all plates of similar design. The examiner notes that the claims appear to recite a method step of optimizing the plates of the plate-link chain though the claims are drawn to the apparatus; and therefore the method steps using the formulas have not been given patentable weight.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 14 October 2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In Response to applicant's arguments concerning the apparatus claims 5-7, the examiner points out that the claims are drawn to the apparatus of the link plate, but appear to recite a method step of optimizing the plates of the plate-link chain. These method steps using the formulas have not been given patentable weight in the above rejections.

Applicant's arguments, see Remarks, filed 14 October 2008, with respect to the method claims 2 and 3 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 2 and 3 has been withdrawn.
